Informal inquiries by Directorate of Intelligence representatives to interested personnel within the Central Intelligence Agency indicate an intelligence community interest and requirement for such A very positive and favorable response to these inquiries was obtained from personnel of the Office of Current Intelligence, who stated that the Central Intelligence Agency is largely dependent on the Directorate of Intelligence, USAF, for this type of evaluated intelligence, and that the compilation and presentation in an integrated and concise form would represent a valuable contribution to the intelligence effort.
